Gun Control Bills in Lansing

- How do laws get passed?

- A Rep or Senator gets an idea for a new law or modification to an existing law
- Submits their idea to the LSB (Legislative Services Bureau), who actually writes the bill for them
- Bill gets introduced and submitted to a committee for review
- If committee likes it, they can vote to send it to a floor for a vote
- If it passes in one chamber, it must go to the other chamber
- Identical bill must pass both chambers to go to the Governor for signature
- Governor signs the bill into law
